

Beth Cox, HTL/SCT(ASCP)QIHC | Anatomic Pathology Consultant

A new member of the Rankin team, Beth has over 43 years of experience, holding positions in many prestigious companies including the International Genomics Consortium (Phoenix), M.D. Anderson Cancer Center (Houston), St. Lukes Healthcare (Bethlehem) and William Beaumont Hospital. She is proficient in all aspects of the Anatomic Pathology Laboratory including lab operations, management, quality control, staff training, regulatory compliance, and lab design. Beth is a certified Histotechnologist and certified Specialist in Cytotechnology and has extensive experience in Immunohistochemistry.

University of Michigan, BS, Health Care Education